

RULES FOR USING THE PALLADIUM WI-FI NETWORK

Terms and conditions for providing free internet connection service via wireless Wi-Fi network in PALLADIUM shopping center.

The following text contains terms and conditions for providing free internet access via wireless Wi-Fi network (hereinafter referred to as the "Service") in PALLADIUM shopping center, Republic Square 1, Prague 1, Czech Republic (hereinafter referred to as "NC PALLADIUM").

The operator of the Service for the owner of PALLADIUM shopping center, Palladium Praha s.r.o., with its registered office at Na Poříčí 1079/3a, 110 00 Prague 1, ID: 28452704, VAT: CZ28452704, registered at the Municipal Court in Prague, file C 142573 (hereinafter referred to as the "Owner") is the business company N.T.INVE s.r.o., with its registered office at Křenova 438/7, 162 00 Prague 6 - Veleslavín, ID: 26085615, VAT: CZ26085615, registered at the Municipal Court in Prague, file C118788, e-mail: office@ntinve.cz, unified electronic contact point for public authorities: info@ntinve.cz, official languages: Czech and English (hereinafter referred to as the "Operator").

These terms and conditions (hereinafter referred to as the "Conditions") establish valid rules for using the wireless internet connection Service provided by the Service Operator. These Conditions are binding for all users of the Service, and their valid wording is available for inspection upon each attempt by a user of the Service to connect to the internet. A Service user is a natural person who uses the Service in NC PALLADIUM (hereinafter referred to as the "User").

1. To use the Service, the User's consent to the valid wording of these Conditions is required.
2. In case of non-expression of consent and/or refusal of the User to grant consent to the valid wording of these Conditions, the establishment of an internet connection via the wireless Wi-Fi network in NC PALLADIUM will not be enabled, or an already established connection will be interrupted.
3. The Service is provided through devices enabling wireless User access to the internet, which are operated by the Service Operator, primarily for customers and visitors of NC PALLADIUM.
4. Upon first use of the service, the User has the option to subscribe to news and commercial and marketing offers, including notifications about sales events and discounts of individual stores in NC PALLADIUM (hereinafter referred to as "News"). By subscribing to News, the User also grants the Owner and the Marketing Manager of NC PALLADIUM, Property Solutions s.r.o., in accordance with the provisions of § 12 of Act No. 101/2000 Coll. on the protection of personal data, consent to the processing of the User's personal data.
5. In case of subscribing to News, the User will receive a notification of email address registration for the purpose of sending News to the email address provided. To complete the registration, it will be necessary to click on the link provided in the email. By completing the registration, the User also grants consent to the processing of personal data.

6. Consent to receive News is granted by the User for an indefinite period.
7. Each User has the option at any time to subsequently change their decision to grant consent to receive News and, through the link provided in the News, request the removal of the User's contact details from the News database.
8. In case the User does not proceed as stated, they bear full legal responsibility for damages caused by providing incorrect, fictitious, or someone else's email address.
9. The portal uses cookies to identify users.
10. The Operator and Owner of the Service reserve the right to unilaterally change the Conditions at any time, even without informing Users about the changes made. In this regard, Service Users have no claim against the Operator, Owner, or any other entity.
11. Consent to the processing of personal data for the purposes of these Conditions means the Service User's consent to the collection and processing of information and data by the Operator and/or companies Palladium Praha s.r.o., Property Solutions s.r.o., companies engaged in sending electronic mailings and operators of analytical services (e.g., Google Analytics), or other third parties. The collected and processed information is primarily information about the activities of Service Users on the internet, including information about devices, data transfers, and calls made as part of using the Service, as well as other information related to the use of the Service.
12. For the User to be able to use the Service, their device must be capable of connecting to the Wi-Fi network. For the purpose of protecting Users' data and information, login codes are transmitted in the form of encoded files. The Provider recommends all Service Users to use appropriate encryption (e.g., VPN, SSL) and security mechanisms (e.g., antivirus and firewall) for all operations and activities performed while using the Service.
13. The User must not perform any activity when using the Service that endangers or could endanger, disable, or otherwise disrupt the proper functionality of the Service or the equipment of other Users. In particular, it is forbidden to: overload the network and thereby disrupt the functionality of the Service, carry out any activity causing the transmission or spread of computer viruses, transmit IP packets with a false address, someone else's address, or other false sender information, send unsolicited messages (spam), spread false alarm messages and false information, as well as carry out other activities that are contrary to valid law and generally valid principles of decent behavior. The User is responsible even for unintentional actions. In case of suspicion of violation of these Conditions, appropriate legal steps may be taken against the User.
14. The Provider is entitled at any time to block, interrupt, or completely stop providing the Service at its own discretion, even without prior notice to the User. Ensuring the compatibility of the User's devices used when using the Service and assessing their suitability for the purposes of using the Service is solely at the User's discretion. In connection with providing the Service, the Provider does not make available to the User any software, equipment, or configuration settings. The Provider does not guarantee the functionality of the Service on the User's device.
15. The data flow between the User's client device and the system is unencoded and allows access to third parties. The network is open and does not contain a firewall or antivirus software.

16. Given that the Service is provided to Users free of charge, the availability of the Service, its trouble-free functionality and performance, as well as the performance and functionality of individual parts of the network, as well as the speed and quality of data transmission, are not guaranteed. The Provider warns the User that when using the Service, there may be delays, outages, or occasional interference or slowdowns in data transmission, connection failures, or loss of data or damage to the User's software as a result of these events. The Service Provider or any other entity bears no responsibility towards the User for any damage arising from the use of the Service or in connection with the use of the Service.
17. If any provision of these Conditions loses validity and/or effectiveness, the validity and effectiveness of the remaining part of the Conditions remain unaffected.
18. The network operator reserves the right to limit the User's access to the Service at its own discretion.
19. These Conditions and all their changes become valid and effective on the day of their publication. In matters not regulated by these Conditions, the provision of the Service is governed by the relevant provisions of Act No. 89/2012 Coll., Civil Code, as amended.

Thank you for using the Service and we wish you pleasant shopping and surfing on the network.
